

Installation Fixed Sash Holding Brackets

As an additional support to the fixed sash and to prevent dislocation of the fixed sash under extreme force.

Sovereign Sliding Door holding brackets are attached to the frame via a supporting base profile and retaining screws located in the end bumpers. It is recommended that the brackets be fitted as illustrated in Fig1

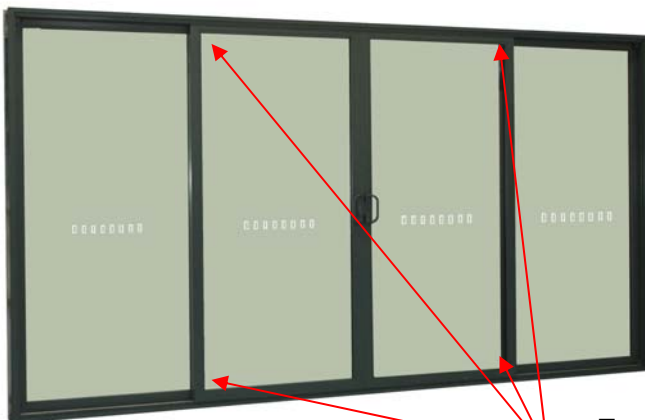

2 Panel Door

Fig 1

Remove the end cover and use existing two screw locations. Mark and drill the bracket to suit

4 Panel with centre sliders

Top / bottom
bracket location